Prenuptial Agreement

This pre-nuptial agreement is made on this _____ day of _____ (Month) _____ (Year) by and between _____ AND _____

Whereas the parties aim to get married under the laws of the State of _____ and hope to set forth in advance of their wedding the rights and constitutional rights that each will have in the belongings of the other in the occasion of death, separation, or other situation which results in the cancellation of their marriage.

Whereas the parties have made to each other a full and complete revelation of their property, as set forth in Exhibits 1 and 2 to this agreement.

Whereas both parties have been symbolized by self-governing guidance of their own choosing, and whereas both parties have received a full and complete clarification of their legal rights, the consequences of entering into this pre-nuptial agreement, and the rights they would hold were it not for their intentional entry into this agreement, and

Whereas both parties recognize that they have read and comprehend this agreement, have not been subjected to any form of compulsion, threats, or intimidation, and consider this agreement to be fair and to symbolize their bargains with reference to their assets and to any property that shall result from their marriage.

The parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Each party shall individually keep hold of all of his or her rights in his or her separate belongings, as spelled out in this agreement, free and clear of any claim of the other party, without regard to any law or effort deviated during the time of the marriage in the preservation, organization, or enhancement of that separate property.
2. At all times, the parties shall entertain the full right and power with regard to their individual property as each would have had if not married, together with full and unlimited to the right and authority to use, sell, transfer, manage, gift and express the separate property. Both parties make agreement to carry out any documentation required to allow the other to exercise these rights, provided the act of executing the documentation does not force them any legal or monetary liability for the separate property of the other.
3. The parties agree that each shall be responsible for any tax obligations linked with their separate property.
4. The parties agree that neither shall contest the validity or provisions of any will, account, trust agreement, or other instrument performed by the other which disposes of his or her separate property or which generates any interest therein in another. To the degree that such an action would create any right or interest in the individual property of the other, both parties hereby give up any right in the property of the other, whether created by ruling or ordinary law, including but not limited to any right to make a decision against the determination of the other, or to take an intestate share of the other's property. The wife hereby surrenders any other interest in the husband's individual property, and the husband hereby doesn't claim any only interest in the wife's individual property.
5. In the event of severance or divorce, the parties shall have no right against each other for splitting up of property assets of this age.
